

The main component of the offer of Franz Kafka Bookshop are the books of Prague German literature, Czech literature and books on Judaism and on Prague.

-What you can buy from us-

-The works of Franz Kafka in translation as well as the original.

-The available editions of the books by Franz Kafka in the original, in Czech and in the main world languages; the common editions, illustrated as well as originally artistically rendered editions, including comics.

-Further 'Prague German' literature: works by R. M. Rilke, G. Meyrink, F. Werfel, E. E. Kisch.

-Czech literature by Jewish authors.

-The basic educational literature on Judaism.

-The specialised literature on Kafka and further authors of Prague German literature.

-Books from the Franz Kafka Publishing House – mainly the works by Kafka, Poláček, Lustig, Rut Bondy and a number of others.

-Books on Prague, Prague's graphic art from the turn of the century.

The fundamental works of Czech literature in translation to world languages – books by Božena Němcová, Jaroslav Hašek, Jaroslav Seifert, Bohumil Hrabal and others.

It is no accident that enlightened tourists like to buy in the Franz Kafka Bookshop: they can find here not only the common souvenir items but also calendars, collections of postcards, bookmarks with quotations, always originally artistically rendered.

